

Key

- Information
- Wildlife watching
- Viewpoint
- Refreshments
- Toilet
- Parking
- Bus stop

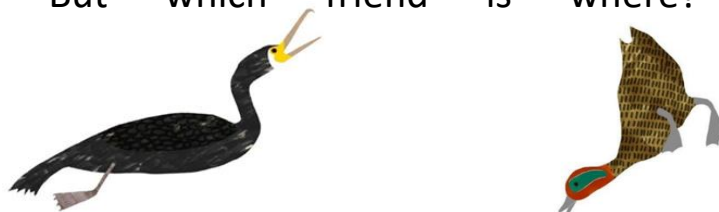

- Loch Leven Heritage Trail
- National Cycle Network Route 1
- Other paths

- National Nature Reserve
- RSPB Reserve
- Castle ferry (summer only)

Brass Rubbing Trail Posts

There are 10 brass rubbings of Tufty and all their friends to be found. The posts are shown on the map. But which friend is where?

Kinross Pier: _____

Kirkgate Park: _____

Viewing Screen: _____

Burleigh: _____

Carsehall: _____

Levenmouth (Bench): _____

Levenmouth (Hide): _____

Findatie: _____

Classlochie: _____

Old Railway Ponds: _____

Follow the trail on the map or check it out on the Zepto app!

'Tufty' The Tufted Duck is a story written by Craig Nisbet and illustrated by Amanda Bataller, adapted from the original text by Penny Martin for the 'Growing up with Loch Leven' Tufty Project. For more information visit the NatureScot website.

Follow us @lochlevennr on Facebook, Instagram and WordPress

Scotland's National Nature Reserves
Magical places, amazing wildlife.

Tufty the Tufted Duck Brass Rubbing Trail

Join Tufty the Tufted Duck and friends on their adventures at Loch Leven National Nature Reserve!

Follow the Heritage Trail and see who you can find. Bring paper and crayons and use them to create pictures from the 10 brass rubbing posts that can be found around the reserve.